

TITLE: I Love You Baby, But I Just Can't Smile

IMPACT: Tests a player's willpower while keeping everyone else smiling, encouraging good humor, laughter, and silliness

RISK: Medium

GROUP SIZE: 6 or more

TIME REQUIRED: 5-10 minutes

DIRECTIONS:

- Members of the group stand in a circle with one person in the middle.
- The person in the middle says to one member of the circle, "If you love me, baby, smile."
- The person that is addressed must respond, "I love you, baby, but I just can't smile." The person tries to say this without even cracking a smile.
- Meanwhile the person in the middle is trying to do anything s/he can to make the person in the circle crack a smile. (No touching allowed.) If the person in the circle does smile, s/he becomes the person in the middle.
- If the person in the middle can't make the person on the outside smile, s/he moves on to another person in the circle and repeats, "If you love me, baby, smile", and the game continues with him/her in the middle until the person in the middle makes someone smile.
